The Mammoth Concert

It will be seen by our advertising columns, that Karl Formes "the greatest living basso," will give a grand concert in this city on Saturday night at Mozart Hall. He will be assisted by Miss Eliza Andem, the celebrated American Soprano, who created such an immense sensation at the Oratorios and Concerts in New York and Boston; Madame Schuman, from the Imperial Opera, Vienna; her Majesty's Opera, London; and Academy of Music, N. Y.; Mr. Ernest Perring the celebrated English Tenor; and the Grand Orchestra, composed of the principal Soloists and performers from the Academy of Music N. Y., under the direction of Carl Auschutz; Leader, Theodore Thomas; First Violin, Herr Thomas Mosenthal; and Romani; Second Violin, Herr Beissel, Bernstein, and Lauau; Viols, Herr Matska; Violoncello, Herr Carl Bergman; First Contra Bass, Herr Herz; Second Contra Bass, Sig. Anselmi; Flute, Herr Siedler; Oboe, Herr Meyer; Clarinet, Herr Kiefer, Sig. Amici; Flageolet, Herr Paulin, Sig. Bartolo; Cornet-a-Flato, Herr Schmitz, Herr Schubell; Trompet, Mon. Lacroix; Trombone, Mons. Letch; Tympana, Mons. Haberkorn.

This is the largest and most expensive troupe that has ever traveled in the western country, and to hear the grand orchestras alone, is worth the price of admission, as it is one of the finest performers in New York, and we doubt not the announcement will attract a large audience. An exchange says Formes is the grand figure in the oratorios, for the instrumentation never could draw the spirit of his song. His magnificent voice rises majestically above organ and orchestra, and it has been truly said, that an oratorio is not complete without him. It has been with a view to bring out Mynebe's grand operas and several oratorios, that Formes has been engaged to visit this country.

The Faule of Faule will be continued this morning at D. P. Faule & Co's, where the place of the hall may be seen.

THEATRE.—This evening, after the performance of "Gold," we are to have a new petite comedy, entitled The Prince of Good Fellows, written by a young gentleman of this city. The manager has put it after Gold, we suppose, because he wants to keep the best to the last. We know nothing in relation to the piece, but it cannot be better than "Gold," and we hope will prove successful.

HORRIBLE DEATH.—On Saturday last, James Mallory, a deck hand on the propeller Globe, running on Lake Erie, fell into the opening above the engine, which was then running at the rate of fifty revolutions a minute. Although steam was almost instantly shut off, the unfortunate man was torn into so many pieces that his remains had to be put into a barrel.

EF Michael Twomey was murdered in an oyster saloon in New York, on Sunday morning, by two men named Hayes and Vebro. The two last named, on entering the place, had called for three oyster stews for themselves, whereupon, Twomey happening to express his conviction aloud, that two would answer their purpose, was immediately knocked down and ten to death.

BASE BALL—RETURN MATCH.—The return match between the Louisville and Eclipse clubs came off yesterday afternoon. In this match, after a well contested field, and a great deal of good playing on both sides, the Louisville came off victorious, the score footing up, Louisville 42; Eclipse 41.

FIRST PREMIUM.—Mr. J. D. Williams, the Premium Penman of the United States, took the first premium yesterday at the State Fair, for his superb specimens of off-hand Business Writing and Ornamented Penmanship. He commences on Monday, the 4th of October, to teach all the branches appertaining to a business education. He guarantees a business handwriting or no charge. Give him a call, by all means. Room over Sherman P. Whaley, Third and Market streets.

EF We advise our readers to attend Mr. Spencer's sale of silver plated ware, pianos, and oil paintings, which takes place this evening at 7 o'clock, at Mr. Evans's store. This is a closing sale, and bargains may be expected.

EF A verdant couple from Kentucky, whom the Commercial call by the euphonious names Morris Fishback and Sally Fitzlinger, put up at the Spencer House, Cincinnati, and succeeded in having the knot tied.

MASONIC FAIR.—It is with pleasure that we announce the great success which has crowned this great charitable scheme. On last evening the Temple was again crowded with beauty and fashion, and a more happy, and delighted audience, we have never seen congregated together. Those who have not yet visited the hall should avail themselves of the earliest opportunity.

EF The attention of the public is respectfully called to the advertisements of E. D. Dean, real estate and commission agent, Jefferson, between Fourth and Fifth streets. In addition to the numerous inducements offered by him for sale and good investments in real estate, &c., he has connected with his business a general intelligence agency, where persons in almost every occupation and business can be supplied with clerks, porters, mechanics, laborers, house-servants, &c. This is something much needed in our city, and is well sustained in other cities, and we see no good reason why it should not be sustained here, where we have so many good-looking, industrious persons running around the streets for want of employment. Merchants, steam-boatsmen, contractors, and all others in want of help, we would advise to give our friend Dick our trial, and they will be sure to try him again.

EF The only genuine Turkish smoking tobacco in this city can be obtained at Charley Melville's, under the National Hotel, comprising the favorite brands—Mufti Toumeci, Soutankey, Levapine, Latakya, &c. Also a large lot of Turkish cigarette genuine meerschaum pipes, at wholesale and retail. [Edf]

EF A. G. Hodge, publisher of the "Kentucky Farmer," may be seen at the Secretary's office, at the Fair Grounds, during the week, by those who may wish to subscribe to that paper.

EF We direct the attention of our readers to the sale of real estate in Lebanon, Kentucky, advertised in our column this morning.

EF See advertisement of fine mules and span of horses for sale. Dealers in that kind of stock should call and examine at the Shelby House.

EF The hog cholera is making terrible ravages among the swine multitude in Sullivan county, Indiana.

EF Harness horses will be shown at the State Fair to day.

EF A little girl named Belle Hains, fell down and broke her arm yesterday.

EF There was quite a number of arrests yesterday for drunkenness.

EF H. Montague alias a half dozen other names, was held to bail yesterday for passing counterfeit money.

STATE FAIR.

Third Annual Exhibition.

SECOND DAY.

Yesterday was glorious for the Fair. A sun that cheered and warmed, and beezers whose invisible wings fanned the cheek of the pleasure seeker, united their unrivaled attractions to the other allurements of the fair grounds. Jeno tucked Jeanette under his arm, mounted the rail car, and went in for a day's frolic, and "hang the expense." Phyllis came from the pastures lands of Kentucky, with Corydon at her side. Ah, me, thought we, what glorious things are Fair. Here the weary artisan, the hard toiling farmer, come in possession of wealth. It is a magnificent farm the subscribers have provided for us, flower and fruit, and maize as fair as ever dreamed in Circassia, or come with the chosen people to the lands of promise. But to construct his plows, Mr. Briley was compelled to labor without the use of proper or convenient machinery, and his progress was necessarily slow and tedious. To remedy this defect in his appliances, and to meet the demand for his plows, which has been constantly and rapidly increasing, he went to work and perfected or improved a press and drill, for which he has taken out a patent. This press and drill is one single machine, very simple in its working and very effective; by means of which the labor of bending or warping the mold-board and drilling the holes necessary has been reduced to a very slight operation, easily and rapidly performed.

The machine has a suitable frame, into the upper cross-bar of which is inserted a screw, which may be worked by a hand-wheel. The bed of the press has its upper surface made to correspond in form with that of the mold-board, and the under side of the follower also corresponds. The follower is attached to the screw, by which it is raised and lowered, kept its line by guide rods.

When it is desired to use the drill, the follower and press can be taken out and the drill inserted, movable by hand or power. When any desired number of plates have been drilled, the bed and the follower are reinserted and the plates pressed to the desired shape. This is one of the most simple pieces of machinery invented, and is more effective in its operations. All machines should examine it, especially all who are engaged in making plows.

CIDER MILL AND CORN SHELLER.—Mr. Males is on the Fair ground with his Cider Mill and Corn Sheller, in the regular list for Cincinnati to day, leaving at 11 o'clock this forenoon.

EF WEDNESDAY, Sept. 29, 1858.—ARRIVED—Hastings, Cincinnati; Lacrosse, Cincinnati; Poland, Cairo. DEPARTED—Hastings, Cincinnati; Lacrosse, St Louis; John Gant; Mr. Rollan, Memphis.

Correspondence of the Louisville Democrat.—Reconnoiter and Death at Salvias Fair.

W. W. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE.—Prof. Wood, the renowned discoverer of the invaluable Hair Restorative, still continues to labor in behalf of the afflicted.

His medicines are universally admitted by the American press to be far superior to all others for causing the hair on the head to grow, that they will, in a few months, begin to grow forth with as much vigor and luxuriance as when blessed with the advantages of youth.

There can be no doubt that it is one of the greatest discoveries in the medical world. It restores and makes human a beautiful silky texture which was very desirous and the envy of the world. St. Louis Morning Herald.

 To the Attention.—This is to certify that we, the undersigned citizens of Clermont, and vicinity, have used Dr. R. D. Porter's Oriental Life Liniment, for numerous and various external diseases, and have found it truly efficacious in every instance where it has been used according to directions.

It is the opinion of almost every Liniment man, in use, we can find no such happy results as Porter's Oriental Life. We, therefore, unanimously believe it to be the only liniment extant that will realize the expectations of all who are afflicted with the disease it purports to cure.

Signed, D. P. PAULIS, Joseph McPherson, James Miller, John Budlin, Peter Cate, C. H. Walker, William Telly, John Date, Thos. Gately, Nancy E. Lambdin.

N. B.—This invaluable medicine, so highly recommended by all who have tested its virtues, may be had at the Oriental Life Liniment Depot, 96 Third street, Louisville, Kentucky, in 25c, 50c, and $1 bottles. D. S. W.
